

LOGO

Technical sheet

We supply high-quality steel wire ropes designed for the logistics industry, ensuring reliable performance in lifting, securing, and handling operations. Our products meet the highest safety standards and are ideal for use in cranes, hoists, container terminals, and intermodal transport systems. With a focus on durability and load resistance, our steel cables support efficient and safe logistics operations in demanding industrial environments.